

How to print your UHIP coverage card through mysunlife.ca

You should always have a copy of your coverage card with you in case you need to visit a health care provider. Printing a copy of your card is quick and easy. Once you have registered for mysunlife.ca, you can sign in to print your coverage card.

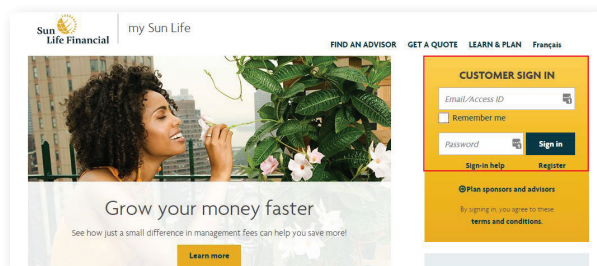

Registering online to get your UHIP coverage card?

Check your University email first! You may have already received a copy of your UHIP coverage card by email when you were enrolled into the plan. If you didn't receive your UHIP coverage card by email, you will need to complete the online registration process.

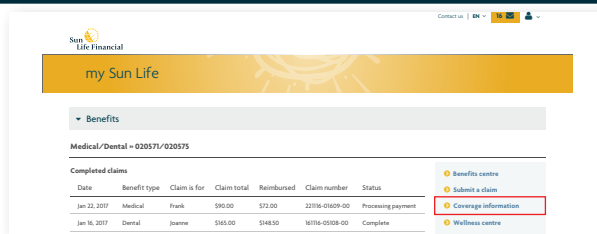

Follow these easy steps to print your coverage card.

Step 1 Go to mysunlife.ca. Enter your access ID and password and click the sign in button.

Note: Your access ID number is whatever you chose to sign up with when you registered for mysunlife.ca. It can be the 12-14 digit numerical ID or your email address. If you forget your sign-in/access ID or password, go to mysunlife.ca and select the appropriate link from the Sign in help box.

Step 2 Select Coverage information from the Home page.

Step 3 Select Print my coverage card from under Resources.
